Spring 1955

Catalog time is here again and I take pleasure in presenting for your consideration my 1955 offerings. The small flowering variety list contains many new and worthwhile additions and the large and medium list, exclusive of smokies, is quite reduced, due to the fact that all except the smokies will be discontinued after this year. This is because the ever increasing demand for the little ones makes it necessary that I devote all of my time to them. The special mixture offerings of the small ones proved so popular last year that I am repeating them. And as in previous years you will find that varieties in this catalog are listed in three separate sections: MINIATURE and SMALL FLOWERING VARIETIES, SMOKIES, and LARGE and MEDIUM FLOWERING VARIETIES.

This introductory would not be complete without extending my thanks to all of my customers. I also appreciate the many nice letters I receive each year telling me how my bulbs have done for them. I have tried to give the best possible service and send out bulbs and bulblets of the highest quality. The fact that well over 50% of my business comes from old customers who order year after year indicates their satisfaction. And may I again repeat that I like to think of all these people as friends and fellow hobbyists, and not just customers, for after all I am as much of a hobbyist, as a grower, and enjoy the same thrills as my customers and shall strive to continue along this same line, and give my customers the same satisfaction I like to have.

This year I am including some additional information in my descriptions. As in former years the number preceeding the variety name indicates the official show classification. This can also be used by those who buy just for home use, as a guide in making their selections as to color and size of florets.

For example the number preceding Ruby, is 252. The 200 means that the floret size is 200 (florets  $2\frac{1}{2}$  inches through  $3\frac{1}{4}$  inches) and the 52 designates that its color is deep red.

SIZE CLASSES: Miniature (100 series), florets under  $2\frac{1}{2}$  inches.

Small (200 series), florets  $2\frac{1}{2}$  through  $3\frac{1}{4}$  inches.

Medium (300 series),  $3\frac{3}{8}$  through  $4\frac{3}{8}$  inches.

Large (400 series), florets  $4\frac{1}{2}$  through  $5\frac{3}{8}$  inches.

Giant (500 series), florets  $5\frac{1}{2}$  inches and larger.

COLOR CLASSES:

00—White	32—Deep Salmon	62—Medium Rose
06—Cream	36—Scarlet	64—Deep Rose
10—Light Yellow	40—Light Pink	66—Light Lavender
12—Deep Yellow	42—Medium Pink	68—Deep Lavender
16—Buff	44—Deep Pink	70—Purple
20—Light Orange	50—Light Red	76—Light Blue-Violet
22—Deep Orange	52—Deep Red	78—Dark Blue-Violet
24—Red-Orange	54—Black Red	80-86—Smoky shades
30—Light Salmon	60—Light Rose	90—Any Other Color

An odd number as the last digit denotes a conspicuous marking. For example, 120 Elda is a miniature light orange without markings and 221 Flicker is a small light orange with a conspicuous red blotch. The conspicuous marking does not necessarily mean a blotch as other markings may also be conspicuous.

Immediately following the name of the variety is the originator's name and the year of introduction (this is not available for all varieties) and the letter following E, M, or L denotes maturity as early, midseason, or late. I prefer this designation to giving the number of days to bloom which is quite misleading since so many things make this vary, even in the same climate or locality. For instance, the earlier you plant the longer it takes to bloom and not only that, but weather conditions vary in different years so that a variety planted on the same day of the year in your own garden may vary from one to two weeks in different years. So the best we can do is to indicate early, midseason, or late. If you are anxious to hit a particular show with a particular variety, the best thing to do is to make about three plantings, a week apart. Occasionally my maturity listings may vary from other listings for they are based on my own records over several years from large bulbs planted in early May.

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY BEFORE ORDERING

SPECIAL ATTENTION — PLEASE — Be sure you read the following before making out your order. And to be sure not to order something, either variety or size, not even listed in the catalog and then give no authorization for substitution. Also the payment toward postage on small orders as required means just that. If you do not make the payment, some item in your order will have to be omitted to offset it.

TERMS, PRICES AND SHIPMENT — On all orders for $5.00, or less, cash with order — over $5.00, 25% cash with order and balance before shipment. Unless full cash or at least 25% deposit accompanies order, or request to be reserved, the order cannot be booked.

Orders will be accepted for any amount, but due to greatly increased parcel post rates, especially to points outside of the United States, I find it necessary to ask that you include in your payments amounts as follows, to help toward paying the postage on small orders—25 cents on orders under $5.00 within the United States and 50 cents on orders under $10.00 from Canada or other foreign countries. On orders for $5.00 or more within the United States or $10.00 or more from other countries, transportation will be paid by me when weather will permit shipment by parcel post safe from freezing. Parcel post shipments cannot be made safely until spring, but if shipment is desired before then, I will ship by express any time you wish, charges collect and include additional extras to help in paying such charges. Express shipments are guaranteed against damage from freezing, provided you notify your local agent immediately as to the damage; but parcel post cannot be insured against such loss. As is the custom of all shippers, extras will be included in all orders when cash in full accompanies the order. These extras, or overcount if you prefer, are based on the size of your order and the larger the order, the larger the percentage. If you have ordered from me before, you know about my generosity and if you are to place your first order, you will soon be convinced.

I cannot accept orders for less than the smallest unit quoted. For instance, where 2 for 30, one cannot be had for 15. Five bulbs can be had at the 10 rate and 50 bulblets at the 100 rate only when the price is $1.00 or more per 100. Unless price is listed per 10, the per 10 rate does not apply, but only the rate that is listed no matter how many ordered.

SUBSTITUTION —All stock offered, subject to prior sale. I will not substitute either size or variety without you so direct and will refund immediately on any item I cannot supply. If you wish substitution, please be sure to indicate your desire by using spaces on order blank for that purpose. If you should check substitution for both “nearest size” and “similar color,” I will always substitute the size first, if still available. If you care to make a second choice when sending your order, instead of leaving selection to me, it would be greatly appreciated. By following these suggestions it might save correspondence and also give you a better substitution than could be made after exchange of letters, during which time the best substitute might have been sold out. I will always make substitutions and ask for your approval before final entry of your order.

As I am a small grower and will not buy bulbs for resale, but sell only those bulbs that I have grown in my own garden (with the exception of new introductions listed as coming from others) my supply is limited and in some varieties and items very limited. As will be noted, in some varieties my stock is so small that I must limit sales to one or two bulbs to a customer. Probably I should not offer these at all, but I know they are something many of you would like to get as soon as possible. So in order that you may benefit, I will sell a few although

I should probably wait another year until I increase my stock. The listing of these scarce items proved so popular in past years that I feel I must repeat it again this year. By selling only these bulbs which have been hand dug, cleaned, and graded by myself and properly cured and cared for I know I am sending you quality bulbs that should give excellent results. In addition to this the bulbs for every order are selected and packed by myself. My files contain a great number of fine letters commenting on the quality of my bulbs.

BULB SIZE — Large bulbs as offered consist of sizes 1 ( $1\frac{1}{2}$ " and over) and 2 ( $1\frac{1}{4}$ " —  $1\frac{1}{2}$ "); medium sizes 3 ( $1$ " —  $1\frac{1}{4}$ ") and 4 ( $\frac{3}{4}$ " —  $1$ "); small sizes 5 ( $\frac{1}{2}$ " —  $\frac{3}{4}$ ") and 6 ( $\frac{1}{4}$ " —  $\frac{1}{2}$ "). These measurements being by diameter and not to be confused with circumference measurements. Orders are filled and set aside as fast as received using the largest bulbs available in the respective sizes when order is received.

BULBLETS — By purchase of bulblets your new additions are purchased at the lowest possible cost. You can purchase varieties which you otherwise might consider too expensive and you will be surprised how quickly a few bulblets will get you started. By the purchase of bulblets you should not expect too many blooms the first year but many times you are happily surprised. Neither are you going to get the size spike you will get from the larger bulb the next year. Even though I have just suggested the purchase of bulblets, I feel that I should also give a word of caution. If handled properly some varieties will germinate almost 100 per cent, while other varieties will germinate a much smaller percentage and therefore it is not possible for me to make any guarantee whatsoever as to germination or growth. And furthermore not all varieties produce large bulblets and neither is it necessary to have large bulblets to get good germination, but they should be good, plump, mature ones. I will always send good mature ones and the largest available. Every bulblet I send out is individually selected. I do not just grab a handful of all sizes even down to pinheads and hope I have in enough good ones to fill the order. In my opinion, to get best results they should be peeled or cracked before planting and then planted right away before they become dry or hard. I also believe that better germination is obtained if not planted until the ground becomes warm enough to induce prompt germination. I have a reputation for sending out highest quality bulblets.

GUARANTEE — It is my intention to send out only good, clean, healthy bulbs and bulblets and true to name. I make no guarantee as to growth and will in no way be responsible for the crop. If upon receipt of bulbs, you find them unsatisfactory, return at my expense and I will cheerfully refund the full purchase price. And furthermore if you later find any not true to name, I am ready to replace, refund, or make adjustment. In no case will I be responsible for any amount larger than that actually paid for the stock purchased.

INSPECTION — My glads have been inspected by the New York State Department of Agriculture and Markets and are shipped under its certificate of inspection. No. 1852.

SERVICE — Whether your order is large or small, it will have prompt attention. It will be attended to by me personally. If you do not get prompt acknowledgment, please notify me at once for either your order or my acknowledgment has gone astray. And I always send a card when I make the shipment so that you may know it is on the way and so be looking for it. You will find my service is unsurpassed by any shipper.

GIFT CERTIFICATES — Don't forget to take advantage of one of my gift certificates. They are just as appropriate for a birthday gift or for any other time as they are for Christmas.

WHOLESALE — Due to my greatly increased sales during the past several years and because of the great number of varieties which I grow and that I limit my plantings and supply to what I can do myself without help except from Mrs. Rogers, I have practically nothing to offer in the way of wholesale this year. Consequently I have no wholesale list. If you are interested in larger quantities than are listed, and not so large but that I can supply them, you will find that these prices with my customary overcount, if you prefer it in place of other extras and which is based on a larger percentage for larger orders, will compare quite favorably with ordinary wholesale prices. You should also take into consideration that my prices are transportation paid, and not F.O.B. here, when order is large enough so that I would be paying this as previously shown.

March 10, 1954

"The glad bulbs arrived on the eighth and I picked them up yesterday. They came through in first class condition thanks to your care in packing. . . . I have grown glads for several years and I have purchased bulbs from many sources . . . but your bulbs comprise the nicest and cleanest shipment I have ever seen.

Your generous overcount and extras . . . were far in excess of our expectations.

We plan to grow miniature glad bulbs and flowers on a part-time basis for the local trade. We are fortunate in having some two acres of new land on which glads have never been grown. So rather than risk disease infection of the land, which could have happened if we had ordered from several sources to save a few dollars, we purchased all our stock from you (except two varieties which I did not have) at your regular catalog prices. . . .

Your prompt response to my letters and the information you sent were highly appreciated and you can be sure all the stock I purchase in the future will come from you if you have it available."

ORDER EARLY — and this is important, if you want to be sure of getting any certain variety, especially any variety in which my supply is quite limited. Even though I have a good stock of a variety this also might be sold out early, for like the operation of a store where it often happens that many customers want the same item all at once with the result that the current stock is soon exhausted. In the store a new supply can usually be had soon but it is not so with my supply of bulbs for I do not buy for resale and so must wait for next year's crop to replenish. Orders will be filled and set aside as fast as received. Do not delay in placing your order. If you are not sure of all you want at one time, send your order for what you do know you want early and add to it later.

SPECIAL DELIVERY AND AIR MAIL — A special delivery letter will not reach me any sooner, and possibly not as soon, as a regular letter but from a distance an air-mail letter will get here much quicker.

DATE OF SHIPMENT — In filling in the order blank the date when you want shipment, please bear in mind that it is not safe to ship by parcel post to sections of the country while freezing weather there is still in prospect. Neither is it safe to make shipments which have to pass through such sections enroute. I always ship within a day or so of the date specified (weather permitting) usually on the very day. So you do not have to request shipment a month in advance of when you really want the bulbs in order to be sure of having them then. I am always glad to ship as early as possible to avoid the rush of shipping requests for about April first.

OPEN UP YOUR SHIPMENT — Immediately upon receipt of your bulbs, unpack and open each bag to let the air in, for they need the air at all times. If damp on arrival allow to dry off and then quickly put in storage, unless it is time for planting. Ideal storage temperature about 40°, but when that is not available, make it as cool a place as possible, usually just off cellar bottom in the coldest part of your cellar, as I would not store directly on cellar bottom, because of possible dampness. By all means do not let them freeze.

MINIATURE AND SMALL FLOWERING VARIETIES

Including a few select 300 class or medium varieties plus some unusual ones such as multipetals and dragons.

You should be able to find most any color or type you wish to fill your every want, be it for exhibition, arrangements, corsages, table decorations, or something else. There are intensely ruffled ones, pointed petals, lacinated, face-ups, plain petals, and even multipetals. Every variety listed has its usefulness in one scheme or another.

Try making an arrangement out of the face-ups by taking a small, rather low container and using a small section of a spike with two or three open florets and another one or two buds and making the stem end just a bit longer than enough to reach the bottom of the container. Then stick a dozen or so of these sections of spikes into the container, depending on the size of it, and you will have something beautiful. Piccolo is especially good used this way. Red Button is good especially when used with Piccolo or white. And the whites and pinks are good when used by themselves.

The culture of small varieties is very easy. They can be planted closer together than the large ones and so get more out of your space. They do not have to be planted quite so deep and do not require staking. And then too, a great many varieties produce two or more blooms from one bulb when large size bulbs are planted.

In attending shows during the past several years you have probably observed the ever increasing numbers of these small varieties, both in the exhibition and arrangement classes, showing their rapidly growing popularity. Many people are now beginning to realize how much more appropriate these are for the home, especially the small home, than the larger varieties and they are unsurpassed for table decorations. There are those, who up until a short time ago would grow only the large exhibition type, and were and still are top exhibitors in those classes, and had no use for the small type ones, are now growing the little ones not only for their own home but for the show table as well.

In connection with the exhibition classes at various shows, let me suggest to you, who are interested in showing the 100 size class, or real miniatures, that you get in touch with your show committee and have them make classes for the 100s separate from the 200s, even though they may at first have to combine several colors in order to make good competition. This combining of colors will soon not be necessary when it is known the 100s have their separate classes. Our Long Island show at Farmingdale has always made separate classes for the 100s and at the 1953 and 1954 shows nearly every color class was well represented. Very few shows do this but I am glad to say that the ones that do are on the increase. It is quite unfair to expect the face-ups, which are mostly 100s, or any other 100, to compete with the larger Peggy Anns, Yellow Birds, Silversides, Statuettes, Smilettes, etc., which are the 200s. And furthermore the staging of the 100s and 200s separately improve the appearance of the show. In 1954 the Pennsylvania Gladiolus Society staged a very successful "All Small Glad Show". If you are interested in winning the Sweepstakes in any show, just try exhibiting a good collection of the small ones. Last year I won sweepstakes at both the New Jersey

State Show at Boonton, N. J., and the Eastern International at Binghamton, N. Y., without making any effort to do so. In fact I had no thought of such a win when I made my entries but just showed what I thought was worthy of a place in their respective classes. At Boonton, I had four entries in the 300 or medium class and all other points were won on the small ones. At Binghamton, it was all on the small ones.

In this list of small flowering varieties I have listed a few of the 300 class officially classified as medium. Many of varieties of 300s have the general characteristics of the small varieties but their slightly larger petal size has caused them to be classified 300, and even so, many are no larger than some that are classified 200. Some of these have previously been classified 200 and visa versa, some that were previously in the 300 class are now in the 200. The classified lists as published by the New England Gladiolus Society and the North American Gladiolus Council and which lists are official for shows held under their respective rules, differ on some varieties as to size and on others as to color. This can be accounted for by the fact that some varieties might grow a trifle larger in one locality than in another and as for color, some shades of some colors are so close to some shade of another color that weather, soil and growing conditions in various sections of the country might make just enough difference in the color to make it appear different.

Because of this difference in classification, and where there is a difference, I am listing both classification numbers according to their latest published lists. So if you plan to exhibit, you will have to inquire under the rules of what society the classifications are being used in order to make the proper entry.

Pure white with  $3\frac{1}{4}$  inch wavy-petaled florets on an 18 bud spike with 7 open and 6 in color. Flowerhead, 20 inches; field height, 44 inches. Blooms early. I believe this to be the best small white to date. In the open class at the New Jersey State Show at Boonton, last August, Gracie Y not only won first but also the Section Championship.

"Another growing season is drawing to a close and I want to let you know that as usual we have had wonderful success with your bulbs. I have bought bulbs from about 20 different growers in the years gone by and can truthfully say I have never had as wonderful results from any bulbs as from those received from you. . . .

I certainly enjoy doing business with you and appreciate the personal attention you always give my order. I already have a long list of varieties made up which I want to order from you next spring."

MORE VARIETIES

In addition to the above list I am growing many more varieties of these little ones which I do not have in sufficient quantity to even list with the limitation of one or two to a customer. If there is some variety of which you might like, a single bulb or two and do not find it listed, write me. I might have it and might be able to spare you one.

MIXED BULBS

SMALL FLOWERING VARIETIES

Since a great many people do not care to bother with the names of the various varieties, but just want something that will give them a fine lot of blooms, I will make up mixtures containing many colors and shades. These will NOT be labeled as to variety and they will not be just a few varieties of mostly two or three colors as is many times the case. In making up these mixtures it is not possible to include as many varieties in the special mixtures as in the General Small Flowered one, in which I will use all types and where I use at least 40, and usually more, varieties. In the special mixtures the number of varieties must necessarily have to be much less as only a few varieties qualify for each of those particular collections.

I do not grow or have ready mixed bulbs, but make the mixtures for each order separately after order is received. If there is any color you do not like, just tell me and I will gladly leave it out, however, the selection of varieties must be left to me. These are the same bulbs you would buy if you ordered by name only at a much lower price, since individual packing takes time and costs money.

I have sold a great many of these General Small Flowered mixtures each year and have received many compliments. Many tell me that they and their friends have never seen anything like them. The Special Mixtures were offered last year for the first time and met with such success that I am glad to repeat them this year.

IMPORTANT — Please order mixtures by both number and description so that there will be no misunderstanding as to what you want. For example: "quantity 100 — size large — mixture No. 1 — General Small Flowered" or "quantity 100 — size medium — mixture No. 4 — Corsage and Arrangement Special."

PLEASE NOTE — Prices for these mixtures are postage paid if your entire order totals $5.00 for delivery within the United States only. If for less, additional must be included toward postage—see page 3 under "Terms, Prices, and Shipment." For shipment to Canada or foreign countries the full amount of postage must be added to prices listed below.

LARGE AND MEDIUM FLOWERING VARIETIES

Other Than Smokies and A.O.C.

As mentioned on the front page of this catalog I am discontinuing all varieties in this section. These include not only some of the newer varieties but also a good number of varieties that I have selected over the years as being the best for my cut flower trade (which I am also giving up) and among them are some quite old varieties not likely to be found in any other catalog. So this will be my last offering of large flowered varieties except the smokies which I intend to continue.

Some of these varieties are available only in small quantities. So better order early and even then do not be too disappointed if some variety is already sold out. If sold out I will promptly refund your money unless you have directed otherwise.

SPECIAL OFFER — If your order from this section of the catalog only, totals $10.00 or more, you may select an additional 10% in bulbs from this section and the regular amount of extras which your order rates will be sent also. Your whole order does not have to come from this section but at least $10.00 of it must and the 10% applies only to that part of it which does.

LARGE FLOWERING VARIETIES

Since a great many people do not care to bother with the names of the various varieties, but just want something that will give them a fine lot of blooms, I will make up mixtures containing many colors and shades. These will NOT be labeled as to variety and they will not be just a few varieties of mostly two or three colors, as is many times the case, usually 40 or more varieties. I do not grow or have ready mixed bulbs, but make the mixtures for each order separately after order is received. If there is any color you do not like, just tell me and I will gladly leave it out, however, the selection of varieties must be left to me. These are the same bulbs you would buy if you ordered by name, only at a much lower price, since individual packing takes time and costs money. I sell a great many of these mixtures each year and have received many compliments. Many tell me that they and their friends have never seen anything like them.

MIXTURE No. 6 — LARGE FLOWERED MIXTURE

Price per 100 Bulbs — Large $5.50

Medium $3.75

50 Bulbs at the 100 Price

IMPORTANT — Please order this mixture by both number and name so there will be no misunderstanding as to what you want.

PLEASE NOTE — Prices for these mixtures are postage paid if your entire order totals $5.00 for delivery within the United States only. If for less, additional must be included toward postage—see page 3 under “Terms, Prices, and Shipment.” For shipment to Canada or foreign countries the full amount of postage must be added to prices listed above.

EARLY ORDERS FOR 1956

I do not issue a fall catalog and I find that some customers wish to place their order, or a part of it, before my catalog is out. Some want shipment in the late fall. So for the benefit of those who wish to order that early for 1956 I will say that you can send your orders according to this catalog and if the 1956 price on any item is lower, I will refund the difference, give overcount, or do whatever you direct. And if any price should be higher you need pay no more. Orders received in the late summer or early fall will necessarily have to be accepted subject to my being able to harvest sufficient stock to fill them for I do not buy bulbs with which to fill orders. All orders will be filled in order received.

JOIN A GLADIOLUS SOCIETY

No matter how few glads you grow, it will add much to your enjoyment and information to join one or more of the Gladiolus Societies. We have two major societies, the NEW ENGLAND GLADIOLUS SOCIETY, Florence E. Butterfield, Membership Secretary, Horticultural Hall, 300 Massachusetts Ave., Boston 15, Mass., and the NORTH AMERICAN GLADIOLUS COUNCIL, Henry Sentman, Membership Secretary, 820 Ontario St., Havre de Grace, Md. There are also many state and local societies. The N. E. G. S. issues four magazines during the year in addition to an excellent yearbook. The N. A. G. C. issues four quarterly bulletins. Many of the state and some of the smaller societies issue some bulletins or magazines and some issue yearbooks also. All of these publications are included in your membership and are very interesting and instructive. Many of these societies have combination membership offers which reduce the dues somewhat.

YOUR FUTURE CATALOGUE

Even though my catalog is as simple and inexpensive as it is possible to be and do justice to the descriptions of the various varieties, it still costs a lot of money. If you are going to be interested, I want you to have it and there is going to be no charge to you for it. Doubtless there are many on my mailing list who are no longer interested, therefore, after catalogs have been sent for 3 or 4 years and no orders have been received during that time, I shall find it necessary to discontinue them unless you request that I continue to do so. Remember, I am only too glad to continue if you are still interested.
